Kennebec Savings Bank Announces Hire of Aline Taylor Taylor fills role of Chief Retail Banking Officer

Augusta, ME - Kennebec Savings Bank President & CEO Andrew Silsby recently announced the addition of Aline Taylor as the Chief Retail Banking Officer and a new member of the Bank's Leadership Team. In her role, Taylor oversees the Bank's efforts in providing high-quality products and services across its branch network.

"We are delighted to have Aline on the Kennebec Savings Bank team," Silsby. "In the short time she has been with us, her extensive managerial and retail banking experiences has already helped us enhance the banking experience for our valued customers."

Since joining Kennebec Savings Bank in 2023, Taylor has leveraged her 20 years of diverse banking experience to help lead several key projects, including the successful opening of the Bank's newest branch in Portland, Maine. Prior to joining the Bank, she most recently served as Vice President of Retail Sales and Service Delivery at a Maine-based community bank. Taylor holds an undergraduate degree from England's University of Reading and a graduate degree from the University of Maine at Orono.

"I am thrilled to have joined Kennebec Savings Bank in this exciting role," said Taylor. "I am fortunate to lead such a dedicated team in providing top-notch financial services to our customers."
