Brawn Joins Kennebec Savings Bank as Chief Human Resource Officer

Augusta, ME – Kennebec Savings Bank President and CEO Andrew Silsby has announced Christine “Chris” Brawn will lead the Human Resources Department as the Bank’s Chief Human Resource Officer.

Brawn joins the Bank with extensive human resources experience. Most recently she was the Deputy Director at the State of Maine Bureau of Human Resources. Her service with the State began in 2013 as the Executive Director of the Division of Employee Health and Benefits. Brawn also worked in human resources departments for the Department of Defense and Maine Drilling and Blasting.

“Chris brings a high level of expertise to the Bank and we are fortunate to have her many years of experience in the development, growth, and leadership of our personnel,” said Silsby. “The Bank is growing and her foresight will be very valuable as we continue to be an employer of choice in our local communities.”

“I look forward to continuing to ensure Kennebec Savings Bank is successful as it grows and develops its employees,” said Brawn. “The Bank has a wonderful reputation, and it is a testament to its leadership, employees and community members. I cannot think of a better place to be.”

Brawn earned her Master’s degree in Human Resources Management from Central Michigan University, and an MBA from the University of Bologna in Bologna, Italy. She lives in Augusta today with her husband who is a 25-year retired Air Force veteran. She is a native of Texas, and has lived in 13 different states and five countries over her lifetime. She is now excited to call Maine her permanent home.
