Kennebec Savings Bank Announces Promotion of Amy Abbott

Abbott Promoted to Farmingdale Branch Manager

Augusta, ME – Kennebec Savings Bank President & CEO Andrew Silsby recently announced the promotion of Amy Abbott to Farmingdale Branch Manager.

In Abbott's previous role as Customer Care and Loan Representative, she displayed exemplary customer service skills and was able to hone her supervisory skills under Julie Armstrong's leadership as Branch Manager. Armstrong, who joined KSB in 2015, will be focusing on residential loan customers as Assistant Vice President and Loan Officer.

An involved community member, Abbott was in the Kennebec Leadership Institute Class XXXII and volunteers as a coach and board member in her community soccer program.

"Amy is an outstanding example of KSB's core values of dedication to teamwork, service, and community. She has been a valuable asset to our Farmingdale branch, and I look forward to seeing her continued success," said Silsby.

"I am pleased to take this next step in my career with Kennebec Savings Bank," said Abbott. "I look forward to playing a bigger role at the Bank and continuing to assist customers and community members."
