Kennebec Savings Bank Announces New Hire

Ian McCarthy fills roll of Vice President & Commercial Banking Officer in Freeport Location

Augusta, ME – Kennebec Savings Bank President & CEO Andrew Silsby recently announced the hire of Ian McCarthy as Vice President & Commercial Banking Officer.

In his role, McCarthy will be responsible for commercial lending, relationship management, and business development at the Bank's Freeport location.

"We are pleased to welcome Ian to the KSB team," said Silsby. "His extensive background in commercial banking and strong understanding of the needs of our local business community will be a valuable asset to our customers, present and future."

Prior to joining KSB, McCarthy worked at Key Bank in various capacities over the past eleven years, which included retail management and commercial lending positions. He volunteers as a board member for the Pine Tree Society and as a coach for his local high school basketball team. McCarthy graduated from Winthrop High School and attended Endicott College in Massachusetts. He is also a graduate of the Stonier Graduate School of Banking in Philadelphia.

"I am so pleased to be a new member of the commercial lending team at KSB," said McCarthy. "As a Central Maine native, I am truly excited to be working for a community-focused bank with a strong reputation for working side by side with customers to help them achieve their financial goals."
